Below are some examples of common citations in MLA (Modern Language Association) format. These citations are based on the 7th edition of the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers. For additional examples, please refer to the MLA Handbook at the Reference Desk (Ref LB2369 .G53 2009).

Print Books

A book by a single author:

A book by two authors:

Print Journals and Magazines

An article in a scholarly journal:

An article in a magazine:

Web Publications

Electronic book from an online database:

Scholarly article from an online database:

Magazine article from an online database:

Newspaper article from an online database: