Sample Outline: Dayaks of Borneo

1. Introduction
   1.1 Who are the Dayaks
   1.2 Concerns with Indigenous Peoples
   1.3 Rainforest home

2. Geographic Setting
   2.1 Southeast Asia Realm
   2.2 Borneo Island; size geographic location on the equator
   2.3 Topography and tectonic activity; Mt. Kinabalu
   2.4 Tropical Rainforest characteristics

3. Dayaks
   3.1 History in Borneo
   3.2 Tribal groups included under the name Dayak
   3.3 Languages
   3.4 Beliefs among Headhunters
   3.5 Sustenance: growing paddy rice, hunting and gathering

4. Outsiders and Interaction
   4.1 Chinese Traders
   4.2 English Raja
   4.3 Japanese Occupiers
   4.4 Malaysian Statehood
   4.5 Non-Governmental Organizations

5. Dayak Challenges Amid Development
   5.1 Deforestation
   5.2 Loss of Land Rights
   5.3 Demand for Energy and Dams
   5.4 Cultural Disruption
   5.5 Clashes with Malay, Chinese and Other “new” Arrivals

6. Conclusion
   6.1 Charting a course for the future
   6.2 Community Mapping, Micro-hydro and Small-scale Economic Development
   6.3 Honoring the contributions of indigenous people

