What is your 20th Century topic question?

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

Find a book on your topic and fill in the blanks below:

Author

Title

Place of Publication

Publisher

Year of publication

Print.  Web.

Is this a primary or secondary source?

Primary  Secondary

Additional Topic or Subject Words

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

MLA citation for book:

Find an article in Academic Search Premier (limit to Peer Review!) and fill in the blanks below:

Author: ________________________________
Article Title: ________________________________
Journal Title: ________________________________
Volume: __________ Issue Year: __________
Pages: ________________
Database: ________________________________ Web.
Date found online: ________________________________
Primary: ________________ Secondary: ________________

Find an article in JStor and fill in the blanks below:

Author: ________________________________
Article Title: ________________________________
Journal Title: ________________________________
Volume: __________ Issue Year: __________
Pages: ________________
Database: ________________________________ Web.
Date found online: ________________________________

Primary: ________________ Secondary: ________________

Sample MLA citation for article:

